26.2 with Tim

Join forces with Astronaut Tim Peake as he runs the London Marathon (26.2 miles) while aboard the International Space Station.

Tim Peake is running the marathon for Prince's Trust. Don't forget to run for a cause. It can be cans for the Food Bank, or an association in your community.

Let's Train 26.2 with Tim!

MISSION:
Accumulate a total of 26.2 miles between 4-24 April as a team, an individual or as a family... it is up to you! We suggest the children run as a group to reflect this distance.
